

butterfly minder

She has a butterfly mind and a butterfly minder running along, with his net, behind her.
He deftly collects all the thoughts she forgets and frees them before her eyes to remind her.

But she never sees her butterfly minder running along, with his net, behind her and she still believes, when he gives her a squeeze, that it's only her memories caught in a breeze.

Butterfly minder, find her a dream.
Search in your net for a soft summer scene, lighten her eyes and help her to see how bright and how brilliant her life could still be.

Butterfly minder, find her a dream
Butterfly minder, make her a queen
