

in loving memory

As age advances, the old shoulder grows colder but amorous ambitions of the mind grow bolder

Virility on a Zimmer frame attracts no buyers
An old hag with a colostomy bag puts out love's fires

Rehydrated lips, implanted hips and false erogenous zones bring annihilation to calcium deficient bones

The hearts once dazzling flow chart indicates decline and cupid goes tits up, like a goldfish in a bowl of brine

In love's blindness Eros twangs his bow but nature, knowing better, answers NO
